Have you ever been at a loud, bass-thumping party and received a call from that all-important client? Well, you no longer have to scramble to look for a quiet corner with the Jabra BT530 USB headset, $190. It's the first Bluetooth headset to offer Noise Blackout, a groundbreaking noise cancellation technology that eliminates all ambient sound without compromising on voice quality. Use it with your mobile or PC! Available at all authorised dealers and selected retail outlets.
